

TIFFANY INTRODUCES TRUE LOVE, THE WEBSITE - WhatMakesLoveTrue.com

Tiffany & Co. introduces a new website and iPhone® App, WhatMakesLoveTrue.com, for all brave hearts who venture into this realm. Now they have a guide. The website and app are designed as the go-to resource for romantics everywhere. Once besotted, couples see the world anew. Tiffany enthalls them with tales of real-life couples who recall—on film and in photographs—romantic roads taken and the thrill of it all. Visitors will also find a compendium of tips for love-struck couples gleaned from Tiffany's 175 years as an expert on the subject. In addition, the website explores the fabulous, fabled world of New York, the ultimate city for falling ecstatically in love.

Audemars Piguet – Jules Audemars

Another elegant is taking its place within the prestigious Audemars Piguet classic collections: the Jules Audemars self-winding chronograph. Its dial design strongly evokes the 1920s, lending it a discreetly vintage note while radiating an array of casual and chic touches blending classic and contemporary aesthetics. While extremely evocative by nature, this chronograph does not merely offer a new take on history. It can also lay claim to pioneering status as the very first self-winding chronograph in the Jules Audemars collection, beating to the rhythm of an exclusive state-of-the-art Audemars Piguet movement. Instead of the white dial matched with a pink gold case and brown crocodile leather strap, retro enthusiasts will be tempted to opt for the model combining an eggshell-coloured dial with a white gold case and black crocodile leather strap.

RM 018 TOURBILLON WRISTWATCH "Hommage à Boucheron"

In celebration of Boucheron's 150th Anniversary, the most famous jeweller of Place Vendôme and Richard Mille have joined forces to create a unique timepiece, the RM018 tourbillon wristwatch, representing a synthesis of Boucheron's bejeweled savoir faire and the innovation of a 21st century watch brand.

RM018 represents the extraordinary union between jewellery and watchmaking, combining the best of jewellery design with Richard Mille's revolutionary know-how. The production will be shared between both companies with the case and the movement by Richard Mille while the semi-precious stones and precious stones chosen by and embellished with Boucheron's great expertise. Each watch will be unique, with different combinations of stones in each. Due to the time-consuming nature of the production, which requires much hand finishing and embellishment, the series will be limited to 30 pieces in 18ct white gold.

Chow Sang Sang La Pelle

La Pelle pearl collection places its design focus on high quality pearls as well as exquisite craftsmanship. La Pelle is Italian for 'skin', comparing the luster of a pearl with youthful skin and the soft elegance and grace of a woman. The designer emphasized the gentle and elegant qualities of pearls in their design concepts, accentuating their designs with dazzling diamonds that portray energy and vitality like layers of waves in the sea.
